OCTOBER 2015

COMMENTS FROM THE PRESIDENT

If you did not attend the fall rally in Branson, MO, you missed a great time. The hosts, Gary and Rita Denning, Tom and Katy Leydic and Frank Cason put on a great rally.

Members were on their own to choose what shows or activities they wanted to attend. Before Branson several members met at the Tom Sawyer RV Park, West Memphis, AR. We were parked alongside the Mississippi river watching tugs pushing barges up and down the river. Members visited Elvis Presley's mansion and museums. We also enjoyed a lot of Memphis BBQ.

I am proud to announce that we have some new members: Kerry & Carolyn Pinkerton from Harvest, AL; and Jim & Sharon Sadilek from Itasca, IL. Welcome folks!

Plans are underway for our 2016 Spring Rally in Dillard, GA beginning April 26, 2016. The hosts will have more information coming soon.

Remember to make your plans to attend the DOAI Southeast Rally at Lazy Days Campground, Seffner; Florida, beginning January 24, 2016. The Fleetwood Motorhome Association rally will begin a week prior to the DOAI rally at Lazy Days.

I would like to update our Prayer List that Glenn Camp started. Please send me updated information and I will send out a new list.

Safe travels and hope to see you in Florida.

TRAVEL

Elaine and I was traveling from Marietta, GA, to the River Vista RV Park, Dillard, GA. We were meeting with the other hosts to plan the 2016 Spring Rally. About two miles on Interstate 985 from Atlanta we heard a loud explosion and the right front tire on my Jeep (toad) exploded. I had no problem moving to the curb. My right fender and part of my bumper was missing. I did not know that a tire could do so much damage. We called Triple A and they arrived in 15 minutes and replaced the tire with my spare. We could still drive my jeep so we decided to go on to Dillard. To say the least, I had to purchase a new tire once in Dillard. Be careful traveling. (courtesy of Charlie & Elaine Harvell)

Jim and Brenda Fairfax will be cruising on Oceania's Marina for 10 days starting December 12, 2015. Itinerary includes Rio and Buenos Aires, and they will celebrate their anniversary while onboard.

Bruce and Margaret Ellen found a wonderful place to stay on their way home from Branson, and loved the park they selected: "Pensacola Beach RV Resort." It is on Santa Rosa Sound (Premium sites on the water), and across the street from the beach/Gulf of Mexico! It was on the 'pricy' side for daily rates, but the weekly & monthly rates get a nice break, especially in the "shoulder months," April & May; Sept. & Oct. Of course, the winter is even less, but NW Florida has Winter! __why we don't go there then__ :-). Margaret and Ellen were two HAPPY CAMPERS. If your interested, below is the web address.

An important Note: If you did not receive the Special edition Emails about Frank Cason's tips regarding Hot Water Heater Safety and Inverter Problems, let me know and I will send you a copy. (Glenda)

You've probably seen or read this tip before, but submitting as a reminder again. When you leave your motorhome, and are away from the area, you should ensure your entry steps are not left out. Just in case someone is in the area with evil intentions, these entry steps allow someone to climb them, break a window and have easy access to your motorhome.

UPCOMING EVENTS

FMA & DOAI Southeastern Rallies are just around the corner (so to speak)! Per your requests at last year's January rally I requested sites for 2016 based on your individual requested site. We have been busy recruiting new members and convincing them to attend both rallies next year and we are expecting more people. Therefore, I have requested at least one more row in the same location. If your plans have changed or you are not planning to attend either of these rallies let me know as soon as you can so I might fill the space with another Blue Ridge member. If you plan on attending FMA or DOAI it is important that when you call, you notify them you are with the Blue Ridge Discoverys. There is another group called Blue Ridge and this resulted in problems with sites last year.

Below is an updated list of our site request.

170 Charles Harvell	184 Richard Money
198 Bob Angus	183 Bobby Simpson
197 Henry Cason	185 Pat Stanton
196 Bob Zumwalt	186 Jim Pinkerton
195 Dick Pryor	187 Harry Terrill
194 Glenn Camp	188 Rick Blaher
193 Sonny Blackwell	189 Vernon McBryar
192 Larry Weinberg	190 BRD
191 BRD

We will provide names for the sites marked BRD later when available. If you have reserved and know your site number, please let Bob know or be sure you have notified Lazy Days you are with BRD.

The 2016 National Rally will be in Bath, NY, at the Hickory Hill Camping Resort. Dates for the Rally are 19-24 September. Early days are 16, 17, 18 September and 3 late days are 25, 26, 27. You might check them out at camp@hickoryhillcampresort.com. More information will be forthcoming from DOAI.

Thanks for all you guys do! If everything is OK see you in FL!

Dillard, Georgia RALLY

Margaret Ellen indicated that she has spoken to theaters in the area recently and the Franklin will announce their schedule on 8 October. The Clayton board met last week and is in process of setting the season. Their schedule is based on a calendar year instead of a school year. Margaret will meet with the owner of the winery on 15 October and the hosts will finalize rally plans as soon as possible afterwards.
(Margaret Ellen)

Look for details and registration forms in our end of December-first of January Newsletter.

Outer Banks: Jim and Brenda Fairfax will start checking out the campgrounds at the Outer Banks and send information to all after the holidays.... first part of the year. Understand the requirement to have a facility for meals and social gatherings, as well as 50 amps for our motorhomes. (Brenda Fairfax)

Critter problems?

Well we tried the products called “Just One Bite” and “Fresh Cab Rodent Repellent.” that I mentioned in our last Newsletter. Unfortunately, neither worked for us. In fact, I think the little pest brought his entire family, including cousins, with him this time. He in particular loved a box of Kleenex on the dash. I spent three days washing everything in the drawers and cleaning up pieces of Kleenex from all over the coach. When I lifted my cup holder (after finding a track), I could see where one had been underneath the cabinet with the wiring. Even the pull-out bays in the basement were full of “mouse tracks.” Apparently, they died from what they ate, but only after getting in the motorhome. Not a good smell, believe me! What has worked best for us in the past has been Frank’s solution, tacky mat, or mouse traps. As a rule, we have not had a mouse problem until this past year. Guess this is our scheduled time! It is amazing we never had this problem in our last coach.

Bob, not one to give up, has ordered another product called “Rodent Repel Mouse Deodorizer.” This product alleges it will deter mice and absorb smells left by dead mice. It is supposed to be good for 60 days. “Rodent Repel” supposedly smells like Irish Spring soap. At our recent Rally, one of our members mentioned they used Irish Spring to solve the mice problem. Keep laughing Rodent—we will get you yet!

Thanks for all ur calls & e-mails! I am still @ my son's in GA recuperating & doing better. My stay which I had expected to be shorter, I just found out from the Doctor is anyways between 3 & 6 mos. It seems the septic went thru-out my body. My condition was way beyond a kidney stone. Maybe, w/luck I can make Lazy Days!?"?? I DO miss all of you...You all cheer me up so much & make me happy.

(Eileen P. Haden)

Mission Trip: Even though Jim's knee has not healed correctly, before allowing the doctors to attempt to correct the situation, Brenda volunteered Jim for a mission trip (September 26-October 3, 2015) to display his skills, with a medical team, to the Dominican Republic. Brenda is confident that Jim would be in great hands (her doctor is along on the trip), and the thought of the "bum knee" would not be on Jim's mind constantly. -) He's assisting in building a medical clinic. Brenda and Maximus stayed behind and Brenda is still chugging along with her doctorate and Maximus is doing well.

(Brenda Fairfax)

Elaine Harvell was having some back problems at our Fall Rally. She has been through a lot of pain with her earlier surgery and was doing so well in April. Pray that this set-back is temporary and she improves soon.

Buddy Reynolds was not walking very well at our Branson Rally either. He told Becky he thought he would drive on to Texas after the Rally, but Becky assured me he was going home to see the physician. It was obvious Buddy was in pain. Keep us posted Buddy.

You would never know it, but Susan Gutierrez had a knee replacement around May and she is really amazing as you would never know she had recently been "laid up." She said it is the best surgery she ever had and regrets waiting so long to have it.

Places to go - things to see

One of our trips this summer was to Washington, D.C. There is a lot to do in DC, but the summer in Washington is really, really, hot. We stayed at Andrews Air Force Base (Joint Base Andrews) which has a nice camp. If you have a military ID card, I recommend it because it is so convenient to the Metro.

One thing I wanted to do was to go to the Marine Barracks at 8th and 1. They have an evening parade that is fantastic. The Commandant's house is at the end of the parade field, which is surrounded by beautiful barracks. If you want to go you need tickets, which are free at their website. The tickets include directions to free parking and a shuttle bus ride to and from the parade. We were fortunate that the rain stopped in time for the parade. The streets surrounding the Marine Corps Headquarters were full of Marine in dress uniform that provided assistance. There were also many in combat gear for security. I wore my veteran's hat and was saluted and greeted often. There are also many taverns and restaurants in the area, so go early and enjoy the local fare. The parade includes performances by the Marine Corps Band, The President's Own, and the Silent Drill Team

We also went to Fort Myer (Joint Base Myer Henderson Hall) to watch the U.S. Army's performance of "TAPS". This is the home of the 3rd Infantry Regiment (The Old Guard) and the U.S. Army Band (Pershing's Own). It is a fabulous show depicting the history of the Army from the Revolution to current days. The musical performances were quality, and the military demonstrations were awesome. They had soldiers from 1776 making bayonet charges, Civil War soldiers on horseback, Vietnam Special Forces, and modern day soldiers. Sue met and we chatted with a General who was the Assistant Chief of Staff for Communications. Interesting guy. General Washington was part of the ceremony. (Pat Stanton)

SEPTEMBER 2015

Farewell to a friend

Colonel Hank Haden

Laid to Rest

On June 15, 2015, Hank was honored with a full honors ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery.

On the evening prior to the funeral, family and friends gathered at Liberty Tavern for dinner, drinks, and comradery. I'm sure Hank looked down on us and chuckled at some of the stories and memories that were shared. It was not a time of mourning, but a true celebration of the life of a wonderful man.

Not telling secrets - It got very loud!

Lieutenant Colonel, Pilot, Squadron Commander, but still Dad. Ryan gets his daughter's hair squared away

Hank was a decorated war hero and received the recognition that such a noble warrior deserves. The ceremony conducted at Arlington was very moving. My emotions bounced from sadness to joy to patriotic pride throughout the morning. The United States Air Force represented themselves and our nation admirably

We gathered at the Administration Building prior to the funeral

Firing Squad's 21 gun salute

Hank loved flying the A-10 Warthog and Ryan followed in his footsteps. Members of the Flying Tigers Squadron from Moody Airforce Base (Ryan is the Squadron Commander) conducted a flyover of the funeral. I know Hank was saluting them as they were him. I was honored to be able to witness this memorial to one of our nation's great warrior. Miss you, my friend

Following the ceremony at Arlington, many family and friends gathered at the Boulevard Woodgrill for a final celebration of Hank's life. The food and spirits were good and the company was excellent. Of course Sue and Richard Money made friends with the bartender as soon as we entered. Hank has a wonderful family and a fine group of friends. It was a pleasure to get to know them. BLUE RIDGE DISCOVERYS 2016 SPRING RALLY

FOR THE COOK

Corn Casserole (Sue Stanton)

1 Box Jiffy Cornmeal Mix
2 Eggs
8 oz Sour Cream
1 Can Yellow Corn
1 Can Cream Corn
1 Stick Butter or Margarine

Preheat oven to 350 degrees

Melt butter – set aside. Beat eggs in bowl with mixer and add sour cream – beat. Add yellow corn with juice – beat. Add cream corn – beat. Add melted butter – beat. Add jiffy cornmeal – beat well. Pour in casserole and bake about one hour or until brown on top. Note: very important to add ingredients in this manner or casserole will not rise properly.

I double this recipe when the kids come over!! Hope you love it like we do.

GRILLING TIPS

Don't rely solely on BBQ sauce to flavor your meat. Experiment with different types of marinades, seasonings and rubs to give your food unique and delicious tastes. If it all possible, marinate overnight; but if you can't, try to give at least an hour of the meat soaking in the marinade sauce.

Don't add any salt until the meat is cooked to prevent it from getting dry and tough, as the salt will draw away moisture.

Don't pierce your meat with a fork or prongs. The juices will escape, making the meat drier and less flavorful. Use a spatula or tongs to move and flip your food.

Quick and easy way to grill large vegetables such as potatoes and ears of corn: coat heavily in butter, sprinkle on some seasoned salt, wrap securely in aluminum foil, and throw it on the grill.
